

EMPLOYER INFORMATION

Human Services VET in schools courses and jobs

SCHOOL VET LEARNER TYPE

Human Services VET courses are delivered at school, or externally through TAFE or an RTO.

School Based Traineeship (SBT), student has paid employment to work one day a week. (students can work extra through school holidays, weekends as negotiated)

Board Endorsed Course (BEC), counts towards HSC, has unpaid mandatory work placement.

Industry Curriculum Framework course (ICF), counts towards HSC and ATAR, has unpaid mandatory work placement.

Students can choose a VET subject that may count towards their HSC and ATAR, get a Certificate II or III qualification (or Statement of Attainment) and get real industry work experience. They are ready for post school employment in the industry with a pathway to further study in VET or university.

VOCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS IN SCHOOLS

School Based Traineeships

CII in Health Support Services

CIII in Early Childhood Education and Care, CIII in School Based Education Support, CIII in Community Services, CIII in Individual Support (Ageing/Disability) 10983NAT Outside School Hours Care

CIII in Allied Health Assistance, CIII in Health Services Assistance, CIII in Dental Assisting, CIII in Hospital or Health Services Pharmacy Support.

Board Endorsed Courses (HSC) & Industry Curriculum Frameworks (ATAR):

CIII in Individual Support (Ageing/Disability), CIII in Allied Health Assistance, CIII in Health Services Assistance.

JOBS AND CAREER PATHWAYS

Early Childhood Education and Care working in early childhood education settings supporting children's wellbeing, learning and development

School Based Education Support working in education settings providing assistance and support to teachers and students

Community Services providing person-centred care services in community settings or community-based programs

Individual Support (Age Care and Disability work) working in community or residential settings providing person-centred care and support

Assistant roles in Allied Health, Nursing, Patient Care Support, Health, Dental, Pharmacy Support.

MORE INFORMATION

NSW Department of Education <https://education.nsw.gov.au/schooling/students/career-and-study-pathways/school-based-apprenticeships-and-traineeships>

NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) <https://educationstandards.nsw.edu.au/wps/portal/nesa/11-12/stage-6-learning-areas/vet/human-services-syllabus>

Your local Apprenticeship Support Provider

<https://www.apprenticeshipsupport.com.au/Employers/School-Based-Apprenticeships>

Your local Group Training Organisation <https://www.nsw.gov.au/education-and-training/apprentices-and-trainees/employers/find-a-gto-nsw>

EMPLOYER INFORMATION

Human Services VET in schools courses and jobs

Employer benefits
SBT Employer benefits

- Recruit keen young staff before they finish school
- Employ and train a young person part-time in your business
- Meet current and future skills needs of your business
- Give a young person a good start with a real jobs and real skills.

Human Services VET courses can count towards HSC and ATAR and can provide a pathway to employment or further post school study in VET or Higher Education.

School Based Traineeships (SBTs) allow the student to be employed one day a week on the job learning new skills in their chosen qualification. SBTs support students while remaining at school to pursue their career pathway and gives them a head start in getting a full qualification and a rewarding job.

Community Services
Community Services Jobs and Career start at school

- School-based traineeships in Early Childhood Education and Care, School Based Education Support, Out of School Hours Care, Community Services, and Individual Support (Ageing/Disability)
- BECs or ICF course in Human Services – Individual Support (Ageing/Disability)
- Work in Early Childhood Education and Care, Family Day Care, Disability Support, Education Support, Out of School Hours Care, Youth Work, Sport and Recreation.
- Pathways to diplomas and other undergraduate and post graduate programs in Early childhood, School Aged Education and Care, Aged and Disability Care, Nursing, Allied Health, Health Science.

Health Care
Health Care Jobs and careers in start at school

- School-based traineeships in Health Support Services, Dental Assisting, Allied Health Assistance, Health Services Assistance and Hospital or Health Services Pharmacy Support
- BECs or ICF course in Human Services – Allied Health Assistance or Health Services Assistance.
- Post school pathways include some Certificate III entry level roles, traineeships and entry into higher qualifications.

Allied Health Assistance jobs in assistance roles in occupational therapy, nutrition, speech pathology, physiotherapy, ambulance or patient transfer.

Health Service Assistant jobs include Assistant in Nursing, patient care support, orderly, ward assistant, acute care assistant or operating theatre technician specialisations.

Pathways
Community Services

CIII Early Childhood Education and Care to Diploma of Early Childhood Education and Care to a Bachelor program (early childhood teacher).

CIII School Based Education Support to CIV School Based Education Support to Diploma of School Aged Education Support to a Bachelor program.

Health Care

CIII Health Services Assistance to Diploma of Nursing (Enrolled Nurse) to Bachelor degree for Registered Nurse program).

CIII Hospital or Health Services Pharmacy Support pathway to CIV Hospital or Health Services Pharmacy Support to Bachelor of Pharmacy.